Hartford, Conn. (June X, 2015) — The Travelers Championship today announced a third concert event will take place at this year’s tournament. A free live show featuring world-famous Ventana al Jazz series artist The Leslie Cartaya Quartet will take place on Thursday, June 25.

Ventana al Jazz joins an entertainment lineup that already includes the Powerstation Events Concert Series—Dennis DeYoung and the Music of STYX on Friday, June 26, and Bret Michaels on Saturday, June 27.

The concert will begin at approximately 7 p.m., soon after the last golfer of the day finishes his round, and will be held in the MetroHartford Alliance Fan Zone located near the center of the course. The concert is free with the purchase of an “Any One Day” ticket on Thursday, which provides fans access to the tournament and all entertainment throughout that day.

“We could not be happier to be partnering with the Travelers Championship as it continues to deliver world-class entertainment to complement the PGA TOUR’s best and brightest stars,” said Pedro Zorrilla, President of Ventana al Jazz. “We are excited to bring a culturally significant show to the Travelers Championship and hope that everyone enjoys our Latin Jazz series.”
