TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES 2023 PLAYER FIELD

HARTFORD, Conn., June 16, 2023 – The Travelers Championship today announced its full player field for the 2023 tournament, which will feature the top-ranked player in the world, the current Masters champion, the top eight players in the Official World Golf Ranking, and six previous winners of the event. The tournament will be held June 19-25 at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Connecticut.

Players in the top eight include Scottie Scheffler, who is No. 1 in the OWGR; Jon Rahm, the reigning Masters champion (No. 2); Rory McIlroy (No. 3); Patrick Cantlay (No. 4); Viktor Hovland (No. 5); 2022 Travelers Championship winner Xander Schauffele (No. 6); Max Homa (No. 7); and 2022 U.S. Open winner Matt Fitzpatrick (No. 8).

Of the 43 players in the top 50 of the OWGR who are healthy and eligible to play, this year's Travelers Championship will feature 38 of them.

A field of 156 players will be competing in the Travelers Championship, which is a designated event on the PGA TOUR this year with an elevated purse of $20 million. In addition to Schauffele, past tournament champions in the field include Harris English (2021), Chez Reavie (2019), Russell Knox (2016), Kevin Streelman (2014) and Stewart Cink (2008, 1997).

Players competing in this week's U.S. Open have until the conclusion of second-round play to officially commit to the Travelers Championship, so the list of names below could be subject to change.

Fans are welcome on-site beginning Wednesday, June 21, and tickets are still available. The tournament will be televised by Golf Channel (3–6 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 1–3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday) and CBS (3–6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday). For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com.

About the Travelers Championship

The Travelers Championship, held in Cromwell, Connecticut, is the only PGA TOUR event in New England for 2023 and is part of the FedExCup series. The tournament has been selected by the PGA TOUR as a designated event with an elevated purse in 2023 and appearances from many of the TOUR's most popular players. The Travelers Championship has a rich history of supporting the community and donates 100% of its net proceeds to charities. More than $25 million has been generated by the tournament for nearly 900 local charities since 2007, when Travelers became title sponsor. Travelers, a leading provider of property and casualty insurance for auto, home and business, is the Official Property Casualty Insurance Provider of the PGA TOUR. The company has been a corporate sponsor of this event each year since its inception in 1952 and has been doing business in the Hartford community for more than 160 years. Tournament details are available at TravelersChampionship.com.
