TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES CURRENT 2024 PLAYER FIELD

HARTFORD, Conn., June 14, 2024 – The Travelers Championship today announced its current player field for the 2024 tournament, which is a PGA TOUR Signature Event and will feature every top-50 player in the Official World Golf Ranking eligible to play, a group that includes No. 1 Scottie Scheffler and defending champion Keegan Bradley. The tournament will be held June 17-23 at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Connecticut.

In addition to Scheffler, all of the top-10 players eligible to play will compete, including Xander Schauffele, the 2022 Travelers Championship winner (No. 2); Rory McIlroy (No. 3); Wyndham Clark (No. 4); Viktor Hovland (No. 5); Ludvig Aberg (No. 6); Collin Morikawa (No. 7); Patrick Cantlay (No. 9); and Max Homa (No. 10).

PGA TOUR players become eligible to compete in Signature Events by achieving certain performance benchmarks. For the Travelers Championship, every player who has earned a spot in this year's field to date has committed to play.

"To have every single player eligible to play in our tournament committed to playing and coming here next week is a credit to our incredible fans and the hard work put in by so many people to make this a world-class event," said Andy Bessette, Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer at Travelers. "We are proud that the best players in the world think of the Travelers Championship as something they can't miss."

TOUR members can qualify for the Travelers Championship a number of ways:

- Finishing among the top 50 in the 2023 FedExCup points standings
- Ranking among the top 30 in the OWGR after this week's U.S. Open
- Being inside the Aon Next 10 or Aon Swing 5 after this week's U.S. Open
- Winning a full-points TOUR event this season

"We couldn't be happier that the world's best have made the decision to come to Connecticut and compete," said Nathan Grube, Travelers Championship Tournament Director. "This is the best player field in our history."

With the U.S. Open concluding on Sunday, the Travelers Championship field is subject to change. Additional sponsor's exemptions will be announced on Monday, once the final field is set through performance categories.
