TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES SPECIAL TICKET PROGRAMS FOR HEALTH CARE WORKERS, FIRST RESPONDERS, MILITARY MEMBERS, VETERANS, AND KIDS 15 & UNDER

SERVPRO will provide complimentary tickets to health care workers and first responders, with Trinity Health Of New England sponsoring the military members and veterans ticket program

HARTFORD, Conn., May 12, 2025 – The Travelers Championship today announced special advance-registration programs that will provide complimentary tickets with on-site parking for health care workers, first responders, military members and veterans, and children 15 and under to this year's tournament.

One-day grounds access will be available to health care workers and first responders, thanks to SERVPRO. Advance registration is required and a maximum total of 400 tickets will be available each day, starting with Wednesday, June 18, and ending with Sunday, June 22. This program is available to U.S.-based medical professionals who are licensed and includes current and former EMTs, paramedics, nurses and hospital staff (including physicians, physician assistants, technicians and therapists). Eligible first responder groups include current and former EMTs, firefighters and law enforcement.

Online registration will be available starting Thursday, May 15, at 10 a.m., while supplies last. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/health-care.

Active, guard, reserve and retired military service members, along with U.S. veterans, can also receive a one-day grounds ticket, compliments of Trinity Health Of New England. Advance registration is required and proof of eligibility will allow recipients to secure one digital ticket for the day of their choice, as well as up to two tickets for their dependents.

Active, guard, reserve and retired military service members and U.S. veterans will have complimentary access to the Patriots' Outpost, a hospitality venue located to the left of the ninth fairway that will offer free lunch from Wednesday, June 18, through Sunday, June 22. Guests will also be able to watch the tournament from an open-air, covered seating area. The Patriots' Outpost is made possible by Trinity Health Of New England with support from Stanley Black & Decker.

Registration for this program will open Thursday, May 29, at 10 a.m. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/military.

Tickets that are part of these programs must be redeemed online prior to arriving at TPC River Highlands.

"Thanks to SERVPRO and Trinity Health Of New England, we're able to provide tournament access to these important groups of people who selflessly give of themselves to our communities," said Travelers Championship Tournament Director Nathan Grube. "We owe a debt of gratitude to all health care workers, first responders, military members and veterans. We hope many of them will be able to attend this year's tournament and enjoy watching world-class golf."

All children 15 and under will receive complimentary grounds access when accompanied by a ticketed adult. The Kids Admission Program will be honored at tournament entrances from Wednesday, June 18, through Sunday, June 22. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/kids.

Ticketed spectators will be permitted at TPC River Highlands starting on Wednesday, June 18 and the week's schedule of events includes:

- Travelers Pro-Am, Wednesday, June 18: PGA TOUR players play alongside amateurs who take their best shot at the tournament course. With tournament week continuing to evolve as a 72-player Signature Event, celebrity involvement will be more streamlined. Some of our celebrity friends will participate without a pro in their groups in the afternoon, with additional details and tee times announced once they are finalized. There will also be a Celebrity Mini Golf competition in the Fan Zone, with two waves of local celebrities that include media personalities and sports figures competing to win prize money for the charity of their choice.
- Signature Women's Day Breakfast, Thursday, June 19: Held at TPC River Highlands, this year's event will feature Hoda Kotb, journalist, author and former host of the NBC "Today" show, as well as Broadway star Mary Kate Morrissey. Tickets go on sale at 10 a.m. ET on Tuesday, May 13.
- Tournament competition rounds, Thursday, June 19-Sunday, June 22.

Ticket holders for this year's Travelers Championship will have access to multiple climate-controlled venues to watch one of the best player fields in golf, with everyone competing all four rounds. On-site parking is included with the purchase of a ticket, and the Stanley Black & Decker Fan Zone will offer food and beverage options, mini golf, a chipping challenge, face painting and other activities the whole family can enjoy. Players who have already committed to play include defending champion Scottie Scheffler, Rory McIlroy, Xander Schauffele, Collin Morikawa, Ludvig Aberg, Viktor Hovland and Justin Thomas.
