TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP CONTINUES TO EMBRACE PGA TOUR SIGNATURE EVENT STATUS

2026 will be 20th consecutive tournament with Travelers as title sponsor

HARTFORD, Conn., Jan. 21, 2026 – For the fourth straight year, the Travelers Championship will hold a prestigious, elevated spot on the PGA TOUR schedule, bringing together hundreds of thousands of golf fans and 72 of the world’s best players for the final Signature Event of the season. It will also mark a milestone – the 20th consecutive tournament featuring Travelers as title sponsor.

The 2026 Travelers Championship will take place June 22-28 at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Connecticut.

“Coming off another record-setting year of generating millions of dollars for hundreds of charities throughout the region, we’re excited by the plans and the progress already being made for this year’s tournament,” said Travelers Championship Tournament Director Nathan Grube. “We can’t wait to welcome back the best players on the PGA TOUR and the incredible fans who make this tournament one of the best weeks in golf. We also have the best title sponsor in golf, and we’re grateful for the partnership we have with Travelers, which has played a major role in growing this event to what it is today. Together, we are determined to deliver another unforgettable experience to everyone in Connecticut.”

The Travelers Championship is the only annual PGA TOUR stop in the Northeast. Last year’s tournament was won in dramatic fashion by Keegan Bradley, who made a birdie on the final hole to win by one stroke and become just the eighth player to capture this event more than once. Bradley, a New England native who served as the U.S. Ryder Cup captain last year, also won the Travelers Championship in 2023.

Bradley may have electrified the crowds for the second time in three years, but the impact made by the Travelers Championship away from the course in 2025 was just as memorable. More than $4 million was generated for 245 charities, with both figures establishing tournament records. Since Travelers became title sponsor in 2007, the tournament has generated more than $35 million for over 1,000 charities. Shining a light on organizations in need and providing a platform for them to spread their message continues to be a key component of the Travelers Championship’s mission.

“The players I’ve spoken with are eager to return to Connecticut, and we are just as excited to host them,” said Andy Bessette, Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer at Travelers. “Having the best players in the world competing in our field gives our fans the opportunity to see world-class golf and thrilling finishes while also supporting our charitable efforts. And even though we’ve achieved tremendous success since 2007 – from the quality of the player field to attendance and charitable contributions – we won’t let it keep us from finding ways to make the Travelers Championship bigger and better than ever. The Travelers Championship will be the place to be this June.”

As a PGA TOUR Signature Event, the tournament provides a purse of $20 million, offers 700 FedExCup points, awards $3.6 million to the winner and eliminates the 36-hole cut, so all players will compete in all four rounds. That combination helps produce a world-class player field: In 2025, every player in the top 10 of the Official World Golf Ranking – and 45 of the top 50 – competed at TPC River Highlands. Individual tickets are expected to go on sale in early April, while corporate ticket packages are available now. A number of hospitality venues will sell out during select tournament days, so consider purchasing tickets early. Ticketed fans will be able to attend starting on Wednesday, June 24.

The 2026 Travelers Championship will be broadcast on Golf Channel (3-6 p.m. Thursday and Friday, 1-3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday), NBC/Peacock (3-6:30 p.m. on Saturday and 3-6 p.m. on Sunday), PGA TOUR LIVE on ESPN+ and Sirius XM and distributed internationally via the TOUR's World Feed.

About the Travelers Championship

The Travelers Championship, held in Cromwell, Connecticut, is the only annual PGA TOUR event in the Northeast and is part of the FedExCup series. The tournament is one of the PGA TOUR's Signature Events, with an elevated purse attracting many of the world's best players. The Travelers Championship has a rich history of supporting the community and donates 100% of its net proceeds to charities. More than $35 million has been generated by the tournament for over 1,000 local charities since 2007, when Travelers became title sponsor. Travelers, a leading provider of property and casualty insurance for auto, home and business, is the Official Property Casualty Insurance Provider of the PGA TOUR. The company has been a corporate sponsor of this event each year since its inception in 1952 and has been doing business in the Hartford community for more than 160 years.
