TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES SPECIAL TICKET PROGRAMS FOR MILITARY MEMBERS, VETERANS, HEALTH CARE WORKERS, FIRST RESPONDERS AND KIDS 15 & UNDER

Servpro will provide complimentary tickets to health care workers and first responders, with Trinity Health Of New England sponsoring the military members and veterans ticket program

HARTFORD, Conn., May 12, 2026 – The Travelers Championship today announced that military members and veterans, health care workers, first responders and children 15 and under can receive complimentary admission to this year’s tournament through special ticket programs.

Active, guard, reserve and retired military service members, along with U.S. veterans, can receive one-day grounds access, compliments of Trinity Health Of New England. These special guests must register in advance and provide proof of eligibility to secure a digital ticket for the day of their choice, as well as up to two tickets for their dependents. These guests will also have access to the Patriots’ Outpost, a hospitality venue located to the left of the ninth fairway that will provide free lunch from Wednesday, June 24, through Sunday, June 28. The Patriots’ Outpost is made possible by Trinity Health Of New England with support from Stanley Black & Decker.

Registration for this program is required and will open starting Thursday, June 4, at 10 a.m. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/military.

Similarly, health care workers and first responders can receive one-day tournament access, thanks to Servpro. A maximum of 400 tickets will be available each day, starting with Wednesday, June 24, and ending with Sunday, June 28. This program is available to licensed U.S.-based medical professionals including current and former EMTs, paramedics, nurses and hospital staff, as well as current and former firefighters and law enforcement.

Online registration will be available starting today at 10 a.m. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/health-care.

All tickets secured through these programs must be redeemed online prior to arriving at TPC River Highlands.

Children 15 and under once again will receive free admission when accompanied by a ticketed adult. The Kids Admission Program will be honored at tournament entrances from Wednesday, June 24, through Sunday, June 28 and provides complimentary grounds admission. All children ages 3 and older must have the appropriate ticket to enter a hospitality area. For more information, visit TravelersChampionship.com/kids.

“Everyone is welcome at our tournament, but we’re incredibly proud to offer these ticket programs for military members, veterans, health care workers and first responders through the generosity of Trinity Health Of New England and Servpro,” said Travelers Championship Tournament Director Nathan Grube. “Making the Travelers Championship accessible to children 15 and under helps us continue to grow this tournament. We're looking forward to seeing all of these special groups this year."

All ticketed spectators will be permitted at TPC River Highlands starting on Wednesday, June 24. Spectators will have access to multiple climate-controlled venues to watch one of the best player fields in golf. On-site parking is included with the purchase of a ticket, and the Stanley Black & Decker Fan Zone will offer food and beverage options, mini golf, a chipping challenge, face painting, rock climbing wall and other activities the whole family can enjoy.
