TRAVELERS CHAMPIONSHIP ANNOUNCES CURRENT 2026 PLAYER FIELD

HARTFORD, Conn., June 19, 2026 – The Travelers Championship today announced its current player field for the 2026 tournament, which is the final Signature Event of the PGA TOUR season. This year's Travelers Championship will be held June 22-28 at TPC River Highlands in Cromwell, Connecticut. The final field list will be available after the completion of the U.S. Open.

The field currently features all but one of the eligible top 50 players in the Official World Golf Ranking. Scottie Scheffler has been the top-ranked player in the world since May 2023, and won the Travelers Championship in 2024. He is joined in this year's field by Cameron Young (No. 3), winner of THE PLAYERS Championship; Matt Fitzpatrick (No. 4); Russell Henley (No. 5); Tommy Fleetwood (No. 6); Justin Rose (No. 7); J.J. Spaun (No. 9), the reigning U.S. Open champion; Collin Morikawa (No. 10); and Keegan Bradley, winner of two of the past three tournaments at TPC River Highlands (2025 and 2023).

"The caliber of PGA TOUR professionals committed to play in next week's Travelers Championship is a testament to what the event has become," said Andy Bessette, Executive Vice President and Chief Administrative Officer at Travelers. "It's certainly a win for golf fans in New England, but just as importantly, hosting such an exceptional week of golf makes a real difference for hundreds of charities in the region while also delivering a meaningful economic impact."

As a Signature Event, players must qualify for the Travelers Championship based on the following performance criteria, ensuring the participation of 72 of the TOUR's top players:

Top 50 players from the 2025 PGA TOUR FedExCup standings.

Aon Next 10 – Top 10 players from the 2026 PGA TOUR FedExCup standings, through the U.S. Open, who did not finish in the top 50 of the 2025 FedExCup standings.

Aon Swing 5 – Top 5 players who accumulated the most FedExCup points from four tournaments – ONEflight Myrtle Beach Classic, THE CJ CUP Byron Nelson, Charles Schwab Challenge and RBC Canadian Open – leading into the Travelers Championship.

Players who win a full-points PGA TOUR tournament during the 2026 season.

PGA TOUR members in the top 30 in the Official World Golf Ranking, through the U.S. Open, not exempt via a higher category.

"Preparations are nearly complete and we're ready to host the best players in the world so our passionate fans can watch them battle it out over four rounds of competition," said Travelers Championship Tournament Director Nathan Grube. "The week is shaping up to be another unforgettable experience, so make sure to secure your tickets and come out to TPC River Highlands to catch all the action from the final PGA TOUR Signature Event of the season."

With the U.S. Open scheduled to conclude on Sunday, the final Travelers Championship player field is subject to change. Sponsor's exemptions will be announced on Monday, once the final field is set through performance categories. There are five past winners of the Travelers Championship expected to compete: In addition to Bradley and Scheffler, Xander Schauffele (2022), Harris English (2021) and Jordan Spieth (2017) are also in the field.
